

Alex is a partner in the disputes division with a broadly based practice including all aspects of insurance coverage disputes, commercial litigation and contentious regulatory investigations. He leads the firm's award winning alternative dispute resolution practice within the firm's disputes division.

Alex specialises in coverage disputes in the energy insurance sector and in relation to financial institutions as well as brokers E&O claims. He handles general commercial litigation, has experience in insurance insolvency, as well as product liability claims for both claimants and defendants.

A solicitor advocate (Higher Courts Civil Proceedings), Alex is also accredited as a mediator by the UK Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution. Alex serves as the Vice President of the International Mediation Institute's Independent Standards Commission and is on the Executive Committee of the Global Pound Conference Series' Central Organising Group.