

Anita Phillips, Professional Support Consultant, Herbert Smith Freehills LLP

Anita is a professional support consultant at Herbert Smith Freehills. She trained with the firm and has worked in the London, Paris and Hong Kong offices. She has broad experience in all forms of contentious work, including arbitration, litigation and mediation, and corruption-related matters.

Anita specialises in thought leadership initiatives, and has been a core member of the firm's disputes practice since 2003. She has been central to the firm's major ADR research initiatives including The Inside Track and the Global Pound Conference. She led on the 4th edition of Kendall, Freedman and Farrell on Expert Determination. Anita also supports the firm's global corporate crime and investigations practice from Hong Kong. Recent work includes the 2016 Guide to Anti-bribery Regulation in Asia Pacific and the Global Anti-corruption Report, covering corruption risks and perceptions in close to 100 countries.

Anita is a member of the Global Pound Conference Central Organising Group and is leading the organisation of the Hong Kong event on 23 February 2017. Anita has advised the Local Organising Committees in Singapore, New York, Sydney, Dubai, Bangkok and London. Anita is also a member of the Global Pound Conference's social media editorial committee.