

Brian Downie, General Manager, Legal (Operations & Growth Business), MTR Corporation Limited

Brian Downie is the General Manager – Legal (Operations & Growth Business) with MTR Corporation Limited, responsible for the day-to-day management of the Corporation's general legal affairs, including its Hong Kong railway and commercial operations, railway construction projects, procurement, corporate finance, litigation, employment issues and the development and operation of its overseas businesses, in particular railway operations in mainland China, the United Kingdom, continental Europe and Australia. Brian began his career in Australia before moving to Hong Kong where he worked for 12 years in private practice including as a partner in international law firms. Prior to joining MTR Corporation Brian was General Counsel for a Hong Kong based international construction and mining company.