

May Tai, Partner, Dispute Resolution, *Herbert Smith Freehills LLP

May specialises in cross-border China-related and regional Asian disputes including international arbitration, litigation and regulatory investigations.

Her practice covers a range of commercial and regulatory issues. She has advised governments, government-owned entities and commercial clients (including financial institutions and energy companies) in Asia, Europe and the United States. She has also acted as counsel and advocate in arbitrations under various rules and court proceedings.

May is based in Hong Kong but also spends time in Herbert Smith Freehills' Shanghai and Beijing offices, and has also practised in London, Singapore and Tokyo. She has published several articles on arbitration and dispute resolution, and speaks Bahasa (Malaysian and Indonesian), Chinese (Mandarin and Cantonese) and English, and is qualified as a solicitor of England and Wales and Hong Kong.

May is a CEDR accredited mediator and an arbitrator in the HKIAC List of Arbitrators.

May was named Dispute Resolution Lawyer of the Year in the China Law & Practice Awards 2013. In 2016, she was named a Leading individual for China Arbitration by Chambers Asia Pacific 2016. She was also a Finalist for Woman Lawyer of the Year at the ALB Hong Kong Law Awards 2016.
