

Bruno Arboit, founder and managing partner, Zolfo Cooper China

Bruno heads Zolfo Cooper's China practice. Bruno began his accountancy career with KPMG in Australia and has more than 28 years' experience, predominantly in corporate recovery, forensic accounting and litigation support. He has been based in Hong Kong for the last 19 years.

Bruno has considerable experience in acting for both directors and creditors of companies facing financial difficulties and has undertaken numerous special investigations and business reviews involving the assessment of financial viability and the formulation of recovery strategies. His work experience also includes providing expert opinion in shareholder, commercial and matrimonial disputes, valuations and fraud investigations. Bruno is an experienced insolvency practitioner, having undertaken numerous court appointments, and has written a number of published articles on corporate recovery related matters.